NEW OFFICE AND BRAND

- ➔ Tellus relocates to new head office
- ➔ Corporate image refreshed as part of brand development strategy
- ➔ Technical and commercial management team to expand

Tellus Holdings Ltd (Tellus) has moved its corporate head office to Castlereagh Street in Sydney.

“We are very excited about our move to this new larger office in central Sydney that reflects the company’s growth,” said Duncan van der Merwe, Managing Director of Tellus.

“The new space will accommodate our expanding technical and commercial team.”

The company’s corporate image has also been refreshed as part of our brand development strategy.

Tellus has begun a targeted recruitment program which will see technical and commercial appointments in the coming months.

“We look forward to expanding the team as we continue to achieve our corporate and project milestones,” Mr van der Merwe said.

About Tellus Holdings:

Tellus Holdings Ltd is an infrastructure project development company with a proposed dual revenue business model. This involves mining the commodities salt and kaolin and backfilling the voids left from mining with equipment, archives or long term temporary storage of waste. Tellus’ business model mirrors world’s best practice solutions operating in the UK, EU, USA and Canada. Tellus is developing the Chandler salt mine project in the Northern Territory (NT) and the Sandy Ridge kaolin mine project in Western Australia. Tellus’ flagship ‘Chandler Project’ has recently been awarded “Major Project Status” by the NT Government.
